Welcome Homeschoolers!

We would like to welcome you to the Westfield Washington Public Library. We are here to help you in any way we can. You will find several information sheets in your welcome folder. Rest assured, our support of your endeavor does not stop there.

We welcome you to use library space for meetings and activities free of charge. As long as the requested day and time does not conflict with a program or other scheduled usage, requests are usually granted. You may request use of the Craft Room or Story Castle. We also have six private study rooms that are available on a first-come, first-served basis. The Community Room may also be booked for meetings and events, through the Adult Reference Desk. A security deposit may apply for the Community Room.

We offer classes and special programs for homeschoolers. Some of our recent offerings have included art, chess, creative writing, drama, Lego robotics, science and foreign language. Most of these programs require pre-registration and pre-payment. Please check our web site regularly for current program information, sign up for our e-newsletter, or pick up a copy of the monthly calendar, available in the Children’s Department. You may also ask, at the Children’s desk, to be added to our homeschool email list, to receive information about any of our programs that we believe would be of special interest to homeschoolers. Please let us know if you have any ideas for programs you would like us to do.

If we do not have an item you need, please do not hesitate to request it. As part of the Evergreen consortium of libraries, we share resources with nearly 200 other libraries in the state of Indiana. Additionally, the adult reference desk can often obtain items through inter-library loan. You may also request that we purchase items for our collection. We make every effort to honor requests.

If you are not familiar with the library, or if you would like a refresher, mini-tours are available upon request. This is a large building full of all kinds of amazing resources. We want you to be aware of all of them. We also encourage you to ask for help whenever you have difficulty finding materials. Our primary function is to help you get what you need!

Please let us know if there is any information you would like us to add to our welcome packet for homeschoolers. It is difficult to keep up with all of the groups forming in this rapidly growing area. If your group is not listed, please give the pertinent information to Kim in the Children’s Department.

Again, welcome to the Westfield Washington Public Library!

There are many ways to homeschool, and every family does it differently. Homeschooling is the most flexible school choice in that the parent has more control over subject matter, materials, and methods used. If a parent is not comfortable teaching a particular subject, there are many ways to outsource that class – many virtual private schools offer part-time enrollment, and there are single subject online opportunities as well. Professionally taught classes are available through several homeschool groups, the Westfield Washington Public Library, the YMCA, and more. Immersion into the culture of homeschooling and meeting others in this community can result in a staggering array of opportunities. It is important to note that in Indiana, homeschooled students attend non-accredited private schools and are considered equal to other non-accredited private schools. The same standards apply. A summary of Indiana homeschooling laws is available on the Home School Legal Defense Association website: https://hslda.org/content/hs101/IN.aspx. A wide range of educational philosophies and methods exist. The chart below does not represent all of them. It is intended to give an idea of the methods commonly used and discussed. The examples of common sources used are by no means a complete list – just a representation of a few common materials. (Updated 5/7/2019)

Items of Particular Interest to Homeschoolers

Learning Center: Our Learning Center is located in the non-fiction section of the Children’s Department. This is a collection of activity-based books especially chosen for teachers, homeschoolers, and parents. The collection includes History Pockets, Literature Pockets, math resources, Hooked on Phonics, Story of the World activity manuals, Art Smart program guides, and more.

Non-Fiction First Readers: We have many first reader and lower reading-level books on a wide variety of subjects. These titles are shelved in the non-fiction section, with the subjects they are about. These include Eyewitness Readers, Dorling Kindersley Readers, Welcome Books, Rookie Read-About Science, Rookie Read-About Geography, Bullfrog Books, and more.

Research Guides: Magic Tree House research guides, Welcome to ________’s World (American Girls non-fiction guides to each character’s time period).

Audio Books: Audio books are great for improving reading comprehension and fluency. We have a wide selection at the front of the Children’s Department.

Award-Winning Book Collection: We have all of the Newberry Award and Caldecott Award books in our collection, as well as most of the honors books. We also have a number of the Hoosier Book Award and Coretta Scott King Award books, and the Young Hoosier Book Award nominees for the current school year.

Educational Videos: Disney Nature; Indiana Living Biography; Grammar for Children; Signing Time; Families of the World; Drive thru History with Dave Stotts; Popular Mechanics for Kids; BBC; PBS; Discovery Channel; History Channel; National Geographic; Baby Einstein; Bill Nye the Science Guy, and much more! You can find the complete list of our educational videos by category on our website. In the red banner, click on Children’s Services, then on Homeschool Resources and Educational Videos.

Curriculum Support: If you need help finding resources to supplement your collection, don’t hesitate to ask. We can help you find fiction and non-fiction books to supplement your curriculum or to simply enrich your child’s interest.

Activity-Based Series: Books with hands-on activities. These are just a few favorites!

Extracurricular Opportunities for Homeschoolers

The businesses and organizations on this list have at some point in time offered opportunities especially for homeschoolers, or they have been recommended as homeschooler-friendly, or have expressed an interest in working with homeschoolers. Availability of programs and classes varies, so please call or check the business website for current information. Please let us know if there is an organization that should be added to (or removed from) this list.

Adventure

Adventure Club

The Adventure Club is a group of teenaged homeschoolers who like to push the edge of their comfort zone, get into the outdoors, and make plenty of new friends. Each month, the club gets together to do a different adventurous activity, such as canoeing, rock wall climbing, paintballing, and much more. The club is open to all homeschoolers ages 13 – 17. Cost is kept to a minimum (approximately $20 per activity).

American Heritage Girls

American Heritage Girls allows girls ages 5 to 18 to experience new challenges, serve others, make new friends and have tons of fun, all in a safe, faith-filled environment. Whether your daughter wants to learn more about aviation, learn to paddle a canoe, or ice the perfect cake, AHG’s program is ready to inspire her to new heights. AHG troop IN2324 meets in Noblesville at White River Christian Church the first three Tuesdays of each month, from 4:30 to 6:00 p.m. The program year is typically mid-August through mid-May, with special activities scheduled throughout the summer to allow the girls to continue to build friendships. This troop is a blend of homeschooling, public school and private school families.

Cool Creek Park Nature Center

The Nature Center offers a free Homeschool Hikers program from 1:00 – 2:00 at varying locations on the 3rd Thursday of each month throughout the school year. In addition, the Center offers rotating exhibits that allow kids to explore the science of Indiana woodlands and learn about the importance of preserving plants and animals in their natural habitats. The viewing area is a great place to observe birds in their natural habitat, and the surrounding trails are always a good place for fun and fitness. The center is open Monday thru Saturday 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sunday 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Westfield Washington Public Library

WWPL offers both an Elementary Art class and a Middle/High School Art class for homeschoolers. Taught by a Herron School of Art & Design Art Education major, these seven-week classes are offered twice per semester on Fridays. The classes give students a chance to experiment with different methods of creating art, as well as increasing their skill in foundational concepts such as perspective and color theory, and offer an introduction to art history. Subjects rotate for each session. Elementary Art, for ages 7 – 11, runs from 11:30 to 12:30 and costs $60.00 per student, plus materials. Middle/High School Art, for ages 12 -- 18, runs from 10:30 to 12:30, and costs $70.00 per student, plus materials.

Baseball

Indianapolis Kings Baseball Club

The Indianapolis Kings Baseball Club is a private, Christian club organized to provide Christian, homeschooled boys an opportunity to participate in competitive baseball on the junior high and high school levels under the tutelage of Christian coaching and in an environment of Biblical principles. We also seek to enhance their relationships with Christ and help train them to serve Him in a competitive environment. Monday practices will be at 84 Sports in Greenfield and Friday practices will be at Sportzone Indy on the North West Side of Indianapolis.

Basketball

Indianapolis Homeschool Wildcats

We are a Christian homeschool organization offering competitive basketball programs for boys and girls from 4th through 12th grade. Above all, we seek to serve and glorify the Lord Jesus Christ. Our goal is to instill and demonstrate Christ-like character while developing God-given athletic abilities through discipline, training, and an emphasis on fundamental skills in basketball. We compete against other homeschool, Christian, private, and public school teams as members of the Indiana Christian Basketball Alliance (ICBA), Midwest Christian Homeschool Conference (MCHC), and National Christian Homeschool Basketball Championships (NCHBC). The Gathering Place at Community Church of Greenwood has graciously allowed us to rent their court space as our home court and main practice gym.

Northside Lions
We provide the opportunity for homeschooled young men to play competitive basketball in a Christ centered environment. Our teams are comprised of players from all over the north side of Indianapolis. We have 4 teams including: elementary, junior high, junior varsity, and varsity. Most games are within a 90 min. drive of Noblesville, IN. We predominately play other homeschool clubs, but also Christian schools on occasion.
http://northsidelions.org/

Northwest Warriors
The Northwest Warrior club is organized to provide home-educated children at least 10 years of age (as of September 1 of the current season) an opportunity to enjoy competitive basketball while developing Christian character, basketball skills, and physical fitness. The Warriors currently call Traders Point Christian Church their primary home, with home games at Traders Point Christian Academy. Practices are held at the nearby Whitestown Municipal Complex.
The Warriors offer five age levels for competitive basketball: 18 & under (Varsity), 16 & under (JV), 14 & under (Junior High), 12 & under, and 10 & under. Age levels are all based on player age as of September 1st of the current season. Northwest is intended for home-educated children, and player eligibility coincides with the NCHBC National Tournament guidelines, which indicate that parents must be the primary facilitators of the player’s education including but not limited to classes at home, co-op environments, and other parent-arranged educational opportunities.

St. Paul’s Episcopal Church Choir School

St. Paul’s offers Choir School free of charge for children ages eight and up, and adults who are interested in learning to sing. Each child or adult who enters the music program receives individual instruction in music theory, vocal training and music reading skills. A singer does not need to be a member of the parish or of the Episcopal Church. After a year of participation, children can be selected to enter the Choir Scholars Program (which involves a little more time commitment), and the church will provide free music instruction on the instrument of your child’s choice with the instructor of your choice, plus some other perks like paying for the rental of an instrument if necessary, and paying for the music.

Cooking

Market District Cooking School

Students will learn proper knife skills and other culinary techniques. Parents are required to sign waivers for each child participating in the classes. Each class will include a lesson plan that is based around the theme of each class. The Market District Cooking School is located on the 2nd Floor above the restaurant, Table by Market District. Parents need to arrive 10-15 minutes before the class to sign a waiver for each child attending the class. All classes will begin promptly at 10:00 a.m. Ages 6-12 optimal; ages 5-13 are welcome

Please register and pay through Eventbrite. Search Carmel Market District Home Schooled Co-op. Each class will have a 72 hour cutoff for registering. Any special dietary needs or allergens your student may have must be communicated to Market District 72 hours prior to the event in order for them to accommodate the request.

Drama and Public Speaking
National Christian Forensics and Communications Association (NCFCA)
The mission of NCFCA is to promote excellence in communications through competitive opportunities where homeschool students develop the skills necessary to think critically and communicate effectively in order to address life issues from a biblical worldview in a manner that glorifies God.
NCFCA offers eleven speech events, which are divided into three main categories; Platform Speaking, Interpretive Speaking, and Limited Preparation Speaking. Each of these categories offers distinct opportunities for students to develop their communication skills.
Two styles of debate are offered in the NCFCA: Team Policy Debate and Lincoln Douglas Value Debate. Team Policy (TP) Debate advocates a change in policy while Lincoln Douglas (LD) Value Debate centers on a proposition of values. All NCFCA debaters learn research skills, respectful argumentation, refutation, organization, and effective presentation and speaking skills.
Hamilton County is part of Region VI, which includes Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio, and Wisconsin. You can contact your regional representative for more information through the website below.

Music

Bach to Rock

B2R uses an innovative approach to music instruction based on the belief that everyone learns faster playing the music they like, whether it’s rock or Bach, and the technical foundation is the same. Teachers at B2R use special age and skill appropriate arrangements so that students can begin playing songs in no time. B2R's unique curriculum couples rigorous individual instruction with band “jam sessions,” making students motivated by playing in a group. Like sports, a band builds teamwork, develops social skills, fosters self-esteem, promotes peer recognition and leads to lasting friendships. You’re never too young to play and create music. Introducing toddlers and very young children to music, rhythm and motion supports cognitive development, learning and motor skills. B2R Early Childhood classes combine structured musical games and activities to promote learning and musical growth and expose children to the fundamentals of music.

Eppert Piano Studio

Since 1988, Eppert Piano Studio has nurtured the total development of children through innovative music curricula in the Fishers area. Teacher Sally Eppert believes that ALL children are able to learn the language of music, that ALL children deserve to find the joy of making music through the use of stories and emotions while playing their pieces, and that it is important to teach about music and music theory while learning to play the piano. This premier music program involves families in the joy of their children’s musical learning by inviting a parent to come into class the last 10 minutes for sharing time and asking the parent to help with the daily practice at home.

Ji-Eun Lee Music Academy

Ji-Eun Lee Music Academy has been providing music lessons, youth theater, and early childhood music classes to the Fishers and surrounding area since 2004. Our founder, Ji-Eun Lee, immigrated for Seoul, South Korea in the early 1990’s. She studied piano performance at Indiana University. After graduating with her Masters of Music she remained in the area as a Church pianist and private teacher. In 2004 she opened the academy after her private teaching had grown too large for her to teach all her students. We don’t just love play and teach music. We believe music is an essential part of life. Ji-Eun Lee Music Academy offers lessons in piano, guitar, voice, violin, viola and cello, as well as Mom and Me, Summer Camp, Kidz Rock, and Youth Theater.

New World Youth Orchestra

Auditions for Symphony Orchestra and Philharmonic Orchestra are open to string, wind, brass, percussion and harp players through high school age. Auditions for Concert Orchestra are open to string players up to 8th grade. There is no minimum age requirement for either orchestra. Nora Community Children’s Choir

NCCC is a partnership between the Indiana Fine Arts Academy and Union Chapel UMC. The goal is to provide an engaging, diverse, and affordable vocal opportunity on the Northside of Indianapolis. Each participant will receive a solid foundation in vocal production beginning with breath control, vowel placement, ear training, music theory and ensemble singing. Each hour long rehearsal includes private coaching as well as choral singing experiences. Choir members will be engaged in fun games and exercises that will develop their skills in breath, pitch, tone and rhythm.

This choir is open for children age 4 through 15, and runs as a cooperative. As a result, the costs are low as each family assumes a job for the running of the organization. The director has a list of committees and roles for the year that includes marketing, fundraising, uniforms, room helpers, communications, etc. The cost per child is $10 per month or $60 per year. Families with multiple children are capped at $20 per month or $120 per year. Financial assistance is available if needed. Each participant will need to purchase the NCCC uniform shirt.

Young Actors Theatre (YAT)

The vision of YAT is to empower youth for life. Since 2005, Young Actors Theatre has transformed into the largest youth theatre in Indianapolis. Last year, YAT brought Self-Empowerment Theatre to nearly 2,000 students and reached over 10,000 audience members across the state of Indiana. YAT’s core values are: 1) Create a culture of acceptance and inclusion; 2) Every student has a voice and is respected for their individuality; 3) Teach life-long learning and responsibility, which can be applied outside of theatre. 4) The outcome of the student outweighs the outcome of the performance; and 5) Find the fun in the work. With a home base in downtown Indianapolis and performance sites across the greater Indianapolis area, YAT works to provide more than a stage to the youth they serve.

Track

Body in Training Track Club

Body in Training is a member club of USA Track & Field, YES Athletics, and the Indiana Youth Track Association open to youth ages 5-18. Our mission is to provide excellent coaching and instruction in track and field events and to provide opportunity for youth to compete to the best of their ability. It is also our goal to teach Biblical principles and values and how to apply them in practice, in competition, and in life. Though our club is a Christian organization based out of Noblesville, Body in Training is open to families of any faith or no faith regardless of where they live or go to school. This can be a great introduction to the sport of track & field or an opportunity to receive more individualized training and personal attention to improve upon past performances. Athletes are divided into training groups of 6-10 athletes, each with its own coach, so that each athlete, regardless of ability or experience, is challenged and instructed appropriately. Body In Training is a competitive club.

Northwest Storm is located in Northwest Indy, and is for any homeschooled girls in 6th-12th grade. This is a competitive team, and high school players will be evaluated the first week of practice and placed, by the coaches, on the Varsity and Junior Varsity teams. Players will be chosen for teams based on skill level, attitude, willingness to be coached, desire to play, grade in school and availability for the season. Our desire is to place all players who want to play on a team. No try-out is required for Junior High players.

If we have more 6-8th graders than we need for the team, we may offer a “PIT Crew” which stands for “players in training”. Some girls may not yet possess the strength, coordination or skill to play, but are interested in learning the game. They would be allowed to attend the JH practice and learn from our coaches.

Practices will be held on Mondays from 5-7pm at Chapel Rock Christian Church for all players, as well as on Thursdays from 4:00-6:00pm at Mount Tabor Baptist, for Varsity and JV only. The season runs from the end of July to October, and home games will be at Mount Tabor. We play away games at various locations.

Homeschool Groups & Co-ops in the Hamilton County Area

Arrow Academy

Arrow Academy exists to fill a need for an experiential learning co-op in Hamilton County Indiana and the surrounding area. The Academy calendar consists of seven, four to five week Quests, and meets on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 10:30 to 3:00, with field trips and service learning projects on Thursdays throughout the unit. Students participate in one service learning project during each unit and one field trip per month to spark curiosity and provide learning experiences outside “the classroom.”

Each day consists of three hours collaboratively engaged in the Quest challenge for that unit. In addition to the Quest, one hour is allotted for lunch/recess - i.e. social time/free play. Students complete a Passion Project which is intended to incorporate all aspects of our guiding principles and education modules. For this project, students choose a topic they are passionate about and research the topic deeply through reading, interviewing experts, and experiencing everything they can about their passion. They then develop a presentation to share with their peers and the other co-op families. Families are responsible for instruction in the core subjects (Reading, Writing, and Math) so that each student can move at his/her own pace in those areas. For the 2019-2020 school year, Arrow Academy is only accepting students ages 7 to 11 at a second grade or higher reading level.

Boone Prairie School

Boone Prairie is a co-school hybrid model with the children attending classes 3 days a week. While the primary instruction is done at the school, there are many opportunities for the family to participate in the education process at home. Boone Prairie provides a Classical education with Charlotte Mason influence. A classical education is based on great ideas, great books (including primary sources when possible), foundational truths and principles, and enduring traditions and skills. It holds to long-established standards. Charlotte Mason method influences Boone Prairie School curriculum through living books, habits and outdoor learning as weather permits. Living books, usually written in narrative form, are chosen over text books when available.

Our school year runs September through the end of May. Students attend class Wednesday through Friday, except for Pre K, who attend full days (7:55-3:00) on Wednesday and Friday. There is no school the weeks of Thanksgiving, Christmas/New Year, or Spring Break (early March). We are located at 500 E 300 S Whitestown, IN 46075. We can be reached at 1-317-603-1363 or shawnas@booneprairie.org, or visit our website at http://booneprairie.org/

Brightly

Tips and book recommendations to help you raise kids who love to read.

Classical Conversations (Sheridan)

Classical Conversations is a Classical Christian community that consists of programs that are facilitated by a trained parent-director. Seminars are led by trained parent-tutors who model the classical tools of learning. Contact: Marie Hendrickson, mariehendrickson@att.net 317-750-5079

Cornerstone Home Educators

Cornerstone Home Educators (CHE) exists to provide home-educated students educational enrichment within a Christian environment and from a Biblical perspective, as well as a cooperative network for the families. Website: www.IndyCHE.org
Families Learning Together (FLT)

FLT is an inclusive and diverse group, open to all regardless of faith, educational philosophy, or methods of homeschooling. The purpose of FLT is to provide social and learning opportunities for children and parents, to share ideas and resources, and to have fun while doing it! Children range in age from infants to teenagers. Contact: http://groups.yahoo.com/group/FLT-Indy

Hamilton County Homeschoolers

HCHS is an inclusive social group for homeschoolers of all ages. They meet frequently for field trips, holiday parties, library days and, in good weather, for Thursday park days at parks throughout Hamilton County. Contact: https://www.facebook.com/groups/HCHSfamilies/

Homeschool Meet N Play

Fun and educational activities for kids of all ages. Contact: Erika Organ, spastikbandanna@gmail.com

Indy Tween Homeschoolers

This is an inclusive group of tween (9 – 13 year old) homeschooling families that meet on a regular basis in Northern Indianapolis and Hamilton County. The purpose of the group is fun and friendship. Siblings are welcome, but activities and field trips will be tween-focused. Group discussion about tween homeschooling is welcomed here. The group discusses resources and experiences and gives gentle, friendly advice. There are currently over 100 member families. Contact: Anna Chambley, https://www.facebook.com/groups/198984750720088

In-Grace Co-Op

This is a fairly academic Christian homeschool group that offers replacement classes for all ages. Parental involvement is required as parents teach classes and assist where needed throughout the school day. Students have homework to complete Tuesday – Friday. Annual dues and tuition fees apply. Recent classes include Science, Writing, Spanish, PE, and Art. In-Grace Co-Op meets on Mondays, 9:30 – 3:30 at Fall Creek Baptist Church near 71st St. in Indianapolis. As a group, we also organize various field trips and attend theater productions in the area. Contact: Rebecca Schaffer, rebecca6ynnschaffer@yahoo.com, 765-620-4551. Website: ingracecoop.com. Interested families should contact us in early spring to begin the application process.

Life Learning Cooperative (Anderson)

LLC is a nonprofit group of Christian homeschooling families in east-central Indiana who have joined together for the last fourteen years to develop cooperative learning activities for our families. We offer a wide range of age-appropriate classes and activities for preschool through high school-aged students. Our high school classes can be used for credit. While not requiring new members to sign a statement of faith, our classes and curriculum are faith-based and reflect a Christian world view. We also offer organized picnics and play dates through the summer, as well as class and group field trips.

We are member led and organized by an elected steering committee of parents committed to supporting and encouraging lifelong learning for all of its members. LLC also has a large support group of veteran parents and families with contacts within the homeschooling community and beyond to help assist our members in finding and making the most of unique homeschooling opportunities and pursuits. LLC meets on Fridays beginning in September and ending in April at First Baptist Church, 907 N. Raible, Anderson. Contact: lifelearningcoop@gmail.com

Roots and Wings Co-Op
This group strives to provide a community of support for homeschooling families in Indianapolis and surrounding areas who are seeking to enrich their children’s social and learning experiences through regular activities and a cooperative. Though secular in our approach, we are an inclusive group who welcomes diversity. Roots and Wings accommodates families with children of all ages! Information is available on our website: http://rootsandwingsindy.com/ You may also visit our Facebook page at https://www.facebook.com/groups/rootsandwingsindy/ or email us at rootsandwingsindy@gmail.com.

TEACH Homeschool Cooperative
We are a Christ-centered, parent-led weekly homeschool co-op that meets every Monday at Noblesville Baptist Church. We currently have no set fees other than a requested donation of $5 per family per week payable to the host facility to help cover the costs of utilities and restroom supplies. This can be paid in full at the beginning of the semester of split into three monthly installments. There may be small supply fees for individual classes. Participants must agree to a limited background check. Class schedule available on our Facebook page. Request membership in TEACH Homeschool co-op of Hamilton County. Contact: Michelle Bryce, michelle_bryce@ameritech.net

The Classical Academy
The Classical Academy is a classical, Christian, university-schedule, private school serving the greater Indianapolis area in Fishers, Indiana. Our collaborative model allows parents to participate in their children’s education while retaining all the benefits of professional teachers and a school community, at a fraction of the cost of a traditional five-day school. Parents assume the role of "co-teacher." The on-campus teacher introduces new concepts in class, and prepares detailed lesson plans and a checklist for each subject that parents use at home with their student. Children attend Academy classes 2 -- 3 days a week. On alternating days, they are given detailed assignments to complete at-home under the guidance of their parents https://www.theclassicalacademy.co/
Wisdom Builders

Wisdom Builders is a Christian program for edification and enrichment. It is not a school, but offers a variety of courses led by qualified tutors and mentors. Families decide what courses will work best for them. All tutors, mentors, aides, and families proclaim to be followers of Jesus Christ.

Programs for young children have included history, art, music, drama, physical education, ballet, science with labs, general or physical science, math games, pre-algebra, Saxon Math 8/7, Saxon Math 7/6, and Saxon Math 6/5, Spanish, Latin, French, grammar, writing, phonics, literature, historical crafts, geography, Indiana History, social science, Bible, beginning piano, cooking, sewing, speech, business.

Courses for teens have included Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Marine Biology, Advanced Biology, Algebra I & II, Geometry, advanced math or Pre-calculus, grammar and composition with literature, Spanish I, II, & III, French I, II & III, Latin I, sign language, Bible courses, US history, world history & geography, speech, world literature, American literature, British literature, fine arts, writing classes, American government and economics, psychology, drama, computer, health, and sewing. All classes take place on Mondays and Tuesdays at First Baptist Church in Carmel.

Statewide Organizations

Indiana Association of Home Educators (IAHE)

The Indiana Association of Home Educators (IAHE) is a not-for-profit organization, founded in 1983, which supports and encourages families interested in home education. Their primary functions are maintaining visibility as home educators with civil government leaders, influencing the legislative process to protect the freedom to home educate, publishing information of interest for home educators, and sponsoring seminars and events to encourage families. The annual spring convention offers help for those getting started in homeschooling and encouragement for veteran homeschoolers. Check their web page at http://www.inhomeeducators.org/ or their curriculum resources at www.iahe.net

Online Scribblers
Writing is the primary form of communication in today's world. Our children need to be more than proficient in their written communication skills - they need to shine! At Online Scribblers, our goal is to provide an opportunity for students to explore the various fields of writing while at the same time helping them to become proficient communicators in all of the written arts. Once a student finds an outlet for his thoughts and creativity, his self-esteem will soar and there will be no limit to what he can achieve!

The Online Scribblers platform includes courses especially designed for students in grades 3 to 12 with at least moderate keyboarding skills and an interest in improving their writing while exploring new fields. Students in all grade levels will have a full week to complete work. All courses are asynchronous and presented in written format with easy to understand examples and text. In addition to a variety of writing classes, Online Scribblers has recently added reading comprehension classes. Classes, workshops and tutoring are offered during first and second semesters, as well as in the summer. Prices vary.

Traveling Homeschoolers
Traveling Homeschoolers was created when we outgrew our Carolina Homeschooler website. Although we still offer local/regional trips for families in South Carolina, our travelers come from all over the United States, Canada, and beyond! The group travels to DC and an international destination every year, to Boston and Philadelphia and New York City every couple years, and offers a rail journey most years. The majority of families on each trip are meeting for the first time. You won’t feel like an outsider, and will most likely make new lifelong friends.

Woodside Learning Center

Our goal is to help students harness their strengths, push beyond their weaknesses, and learn that challenge is not a bad thing. Most of all, we want them to remember that learning can be fun! Woodside offers classes in study skills & test prep, personal finance, and writing.

Students enrolled as fully online earners will participate in weekly lessons via the internet. In addition to weekly lessons and readings, students will interact with other students and the teacher via weekly text based discussion forums and activities. Although students work asynchronously,* this is not a self-paced course. Student interaction is an important part of the learning process; therefore, all enrolled students will work on the same activity each week. Class weeks run Monday-Sunday. All assignments are due at the end of the week. Most classes are $135.
